Salem Library Adult Summer Reading Program; Tuesday, June 4 - Friday, August 23. The Adult Summer Reading Club is back this year, encouraging adults to enjoy the summer with books. The theme, "Groundbreaking Reads," encompasses a broad array of reading interests. Adult readers can sign up starting June 4 at the Information or Readers' Services Desks. This year's summer-long event includes a variety of programs, booklists, puzzles, and prizes. In addition to earning raffle tickets for reading books and participating in activities, participants will be invited to select a book to keep for every six books they read. Grand prize winners will be announced August 27. More information is available at 503-588-6052.

Salem Farmer's Market will welcome a new evening farmers market starting on Thursday, June 6. The market will be held Thursdays, 4 p.m. to 8 p.m., June through September, on Broadway. The market is a partnership with the Salem Saturday Market, the Salem Alliance Church, and Broadway Coffeehouse, and made possible by support from the City of Salem and the Grant Neighborhood Association. There will be music, farm fresh produce, crafts, food, and family-oriented activities and entertainment. The market is an opportunity for the community to come out and enjoy summer evenings together.

World-Wide Knit in Public; June 8-16; Salem Library will once again observe World-Wide Knit in Public Week. Knitters, crocheters, and other needle crafters are invited to participate. All who sit and stitch are eligible to receive a bonus raffle ticket for the Adult Summer Reading Club prize drawing. Those who prefer to create in private may bring a finished object or work in progress to claim their raffle ticket. More information is available at 503-588-6052.
