UPCOMING EVENTS, PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES FOR VOLUNTEERS

WOODBURN:

- Thanksgiving Dinner (Soul's Harbor of the Nazarene) – Volunteers are needed to serve, set-up, clean-up, greet, accompany individuals and families and do home deliveries. Doors will open at 8 am for deliveries and all prep work and start serving at 11 am. Contact the office at 503-981-9070.
- Woodburn Fire District – Citizen Emergency Response Training (CERT). Local program is providing training on how to prepare for emergencies in your neighborhood. They are looking for groups of individuals who will participate and lead a group of neighborhoods on how to prepare, respond and train for emergencies. Check out the Just In Time video library accessible online, which is a great source for individuals, agencies and organizations. www.JustInTimeDisasterTraining.org . For further questions/comments, contact Uli at 503-982-2360.
- SMART Readers – Nellie Muir and/or Lincoln Elementary in the Woodburn School District. Be a reader with K-3rd grade students and help improve their reading skills. Program times vary depending on the school, volunteers needed 1 to 2 hours per week. Contact Marta at 503-982-5388.
- Meals on Wheels (NW Senior & Disabilities) – at the Presbyterian Church at 950 N Boones Ferry Rd. Drivers are needed for the Meals-on-Wheels program Monday-Friday 9AM-12 PM. Contact Beth at 503-981-3470.
- Salvation Army-Kroc Center Red Kettle Campaign – Give the Gift of Time - Assistance is needed in Woodburn at different locations to support our Woodburn community. By donating a 2-hour shift at one of the locations you can support local social service efforts by raising money as a “bell ringer” and all the donations stay in Woodburn. Contact Caroline at 503-798-4783.
